

Greensand Country Volunteer Opportunity Description

Volunteer Opportunity Title:	'Missing Pieces' Project Volunteer
Opportunity description:	Research history of local listed buildings, scheduled monuments, and registered parks and gardens (all heritage assets on the Historic England map)
Contribution to the work of the Greensand Trust:	Photograph heritage assets. Upload photographs and research to the Historic England website. Raise awareness of the heritage of Greensand Country
Based:	Throughout Greensand Country
Time Commitment:	Flexible
Duration:	All year
Requirements:	An interest in local history/landscapes/buildings. Enjoy working outdoors.
Support or Training available:	Support will be given by Greensand Trust staff member as required. Induction and training provided, which can be done remotely or in person.
Benefits to you:	Wellbeing benefits of being outside and engaging with heritage. Satisfaction of recording local history for the future. Learn something new about the area or build on existing knowledge. Get up close to interesting historic buildings, monuments, and landscapes. Meet other volunteers on the project. Learn something new or build on existing knowledge. Flexibility to get involved as much as you would like.
Main Contacts for Volunteer	Project lead: Daniel Bowles Volunteer Coordinator: Sarah Preston 01525 234264

